

Nadja dan Bernhardt

Born in Sofia / Bulgaria, she received her artistic Training at the Music Academy Sofia and at the College of Music "Felix Mendelssohn Bartholdy" Leipzig.

A significant rank in her musical development takes the career as a child prodigy. During this period she wrote her own works, performed with major orchestras and won over 20 competitions.

In addition to the artistic work at various theaters as musical director, choirmaster and study leader in Berlin, Cottbus, Leipzig, Hamburg, Wittenberg, she was constantly active as a piano teacher.

She was a member of the presidium of the German Chopin Society for several years.

Nadja dan Bernhardt has been a juror at international competitions, has given masterclasses and has performed in many European countries and Asia.

She is currently a lecturer at the Stage School, plays auditions for Stage Entertainment, ZVA, various agencies, leads the newly founded STAGE Choir, and works as accompanist at the Allee – Theater in Hamburg.